

Milwaukee Aging Consortium

A nonprofit membership organization
devoted to improving the lives of older adults
by connecting the professionals who serve them.

April 9, 2008

Dear Friend of the Milwaukee Aging Consortium:

Please join us in congratulating Amy Ambrose, the Executive Director of the Milwaukee Aging Consortium, on her acceptance to Harvard University's Kennedy School Mid-Career Masters in Public Administration program. She will be relocating to the Boston area this summer. Her last day with the Consortium will be June 12, 2008.

The Board of Directors is committed to ensuring a smooth transition. As part of this commitment, the Executive Committee will appoint an interim Director in the coming weeks to assist the Consortium with the transition process.

We thank Amy for her six years of outstanding service to the Consortium. Under her direction, the Consortium grew from an informal network to an established non-profit organization. With the continued support of our many community partners, the Consortium's future remains bright. Together, we will continue to improve the lives of older adults through information, collaboration, and education.

Very truly yours,

Noleta L. Jansen, President of the Board of Directors of the Milwaukee Aging Consortium
