

Milwaukee Aging Consortium

Privacy Policy

The Milwaukee Aging Consortium respects your privacy. Our website does not collect any individual data on site visitors except from those who contact us for information or event registration. We do not sell or rent mailing lists, e-mail addresses, or other information. In the event that we incorporate other data collection components, we will first announce the change on our website and by e-mail to members, providing opt-out options in advance.

The names of our member organizations are available to the public (<http://www.milwagingconsortium.org/who/partners.php?type=ORGANIZATION>).

Only members have access to more extensive contact information in a password-protected location (<http://www.milwagingconsortium.org/login.php>). At the time of joining, members may indicate whether they want to exclude any information from the member site. Twice a year, we will send opt-out notices to members via the Consortium's e-brief.

Financial information is available in our annual reports, to be found at <http://www.milwagingconsortium.org/information/annualreports.php>. To obtain information from the IRS 990 form, please visit <http://www.irs.gov/>.

For more information, to opt-out of any individual data sharing, or to specify information you do not wish to appear on the password protected member list, please contact us by email at <http://www.milwagingconsortium.org/contactus/>, by calling 414-289-0890, or mailing us at 700 W. Virginia Street, Suite 207, Milwaukee, WI 53204.

Posted April 2008