Expanding Housing Options report available

On February 2, 2007, we held an Issues in Aging Summit to address housing options that enable seniors to age in community. The report from that event is now available on our website.

- Synopsis, what's happened since. As well as synopses of speaker comments, the report includes what has transpired since the event. We think you'll be interested if you attended the event or care about the Milwaukee area's work in creating communities in which people can stay as they age.

Continuing the conversation on aging in community April 4, 2008

This year's follow-up conference, Linking Affordable Housing and Supportive Services for Bottom Line & Best Practice, will be held Friday, April 4, 9 am - 4 pm, at Direct Supply Champions Hall in Milwaukee. Keynote speaker is Robyn Stone, PhD, American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging. Co-presented by Local Initiatives Service Corporation (LISC-Milwaukee), this year's event concentrates on what it takes to bring services into affordable senior housing in multi-unit settings. We encourage service providers as well as building managers and others to attend. Registration deadline is March 31!

Major conference sponsors are SunStarr Realty, ANEW, Direct Supply, and Wheaton Franciscan Geriatric Medicine. See flyer for other generous sponsors.
