Thanks

To all who participated in and attended the Excellence Awards Luncheon May 19, thanks so much for sharing a very special day with us in honoring Stephanie Sue Stein, director of the Milwaukee County Department on Aging, and distinguished caregiver Jenny Miller. ## Two July training events on caregivers target different audiences

July 10 & 31 events offer a great chance to coordinate trainings and conversations about caregivers and caregiving with people who serve different roles in your organization!

Thursday, July 10 (for Milwaukee Aging Consortium members and guests): 1-3 pm, Washington Park Senior Center, 4420 W. Vliet St. Mary Brintnall-Peterson, PhD, program specialist in aging, UW-Extension. Caregivers are different and so is the experience of caregiving. What are the differences, and what do they mean for professionals who support caregivers?

Thursday, July 31 (Caregiver Resource event for paid caregivers), 5-7 pm, MCFI, 2020 W. Wells St. Pat Bruce, program director of the Family Caregiver Support Network (Interfaith Older Adult Programs). Complementary information for direct-care workers.

- Sponsor these meetings! Sponsor levels and benefits.

Ethics and Boundaries: What Do You Want to Hear on September 11?

Save the date Thursday, September 11, 8 am - noon Washington Park Senior Center, for the annual ethics and boundaries meeting (speakers Kristin Tym, MA, Center for the Study of Bioethics and colleagues from the Medical College of Wisconsin). This year, to make it easier for you, we're scheduling a full 4-hour session. We've also had to add a small fee that's well under the usual fees for a half-day educational event: $35 for members, $70 for nonmembers. More information later.

- Help shape this event. What ethics and boundaries topics or cases would you like to learn more about? Any gaps in your knowledge that need filling? Please let us know. Send a message to Tom Thoreson, tthoreson@milwagingconsortium.org ASAP.
